I WONDER IF THIS IS THE

Slippery Rock . . . here and there

Editor's note:

This small article is an interesting something that was brought to my attention as a result of a letter that was sent recently to a member of the faculty by Dr. Huzzard, who is presently teaching at Millersville State College.

Dr. John Huzzard, a former member of the English Department at Slippery Rock, has recently presented a paper to the Modern Language Association in Chicago. This paper entitled, "Enriching the Undergraduate Program in English with works from Italian Literature" bears significance due to the fact that this fall Italian was introduced into the curriculum at Slippery Rock. Dr. Huzzard's paper relates his attempts to foster the study of the Italian language, literature and culture of Italy in his English classes at Slippery Rock.

In his paper, Dr. Huzzard specifically names Mrs. Ladd and commends her on her success in improving the language department. He also names Larry Neiberg, a student who is returning to campus next semester from student teaching. His name is mentioned in connection with a report he gave concerning the Divine Comedy. According to Dr. Huzzard, this report was well received for it discussed the religious issues present in the Divine Comedy and stimulated a more intensive study of it.

cini and Gene Artman.

The brothers also are proud to announce the names of three brothers who were recently pinned and three who were lavaliered. They are respectively: Chuck Krienbacher, Chris Zezzo, Ed Mack, Tom Kort, Jay Hogland and Jae Seward.

Purple Violets are extended to Tri Sigmas Mitzie Atkinson and Judy Sinchak who became engaged over Christmas vacation. Congratulations also to Debbie Taylor on her recent pinning.

The sisters are happy to welcome Joanie Simons, Fran Johnston, Martie Baxter, Marilyn Kimmel, Shansie Kedrick, and Linda Fowler into their sisterly bonds.

Congratulations to Kappa Deltas Sally Bryant, Carol Dahl, Gretchen Kunkle, and Jan Jerome who recently became engaged.

Helen Stillier has been installed as new president of Kappa Delta. The KD's are proud to welcome Lucy Greer as a new pledge. Officers of the new pledge class are: Ruth Woods, President; Linda Becker, Vice President; Pat Schuller, Secretary; and Gretchen Anderson, Treasurer.

Last Monday, the sisters of Kappa Delta initiated Elaine Abadie, Bonnie Cass, Kathy Dambaugh, Barb Lageman, Carolyn Mueller, Marg Newman, Carol Strayer, and Janice Tomsic. After initiation, the KD's had dessert and coffee at Huber's.

As a Christmas service project, the sisters contributed toys to the Lutheran Children's Home in Zelenople.

Initiated into Alpha Xi Delta sisterhood before Christmas vacation were Corrine Closson and Ruth Burke.

Congratulations are extended to Jean Stephey who became engaged and to Corrine Closson and Norma Vaglia on their lavaliering to Alpha Chi Rho brothers.

The Pittsburgh Alumni of Alpha Xi Delta had a tea on Dec. 28 for all sisters who live in the area.

The sisters of Alpha Xi Delta held a going away ceremony for all sisters who will be leaving at the end of the semester.

Congratulations to Delta Zeta sisters Suzi Cordier on her Christmas engagement and Ruth Russell and Toni Cardamone on their marriages.

Also, best wishes to student teachers Carol Gard and Patti Cappelli on their recent engagements.

Much happiness to the former Sue Karluck on the birth of her baby girl on Dec. 26.

Campus Circuit

By AMY HUBLER

Another round of campus hopping has ended back at home base with more tidbits to pass along in this column.

Christmas has come and gone, and finals loom large on the scene. All over the country moans and groans could be heard issuing from campuses as final schedules become known.

In connection with scheduling for next semester, at Bloomsburg it turned into a rather crowded affair with students mobbing each other for over an hour.

For those of you who are already thinking about dropping courses and schedule changes; East Stroudsburg is initiating a change of policy. For the past two years students wishing to change their schedules were required to pay a fee. But the students haven't won a victory yet. The system is being replaced with a more complicated one, probably more red tape.

News of higher education in France has reached this reporter via Millersville. Exchange students upon arriving in France, found coed dorms, no term papers, unlimited cuts, and only one exam per course within a year.

On the lighter side, at East Stroudsburg a group of students got together and purchased an old bread wagon. They renamed it the Warrior Wagon and used it to support school spirit by using it as transportation to away athletic events.

Demonstrations seem to be all the thing this year, and Kutztown is no exception. Their five hundred students demonstrated for two days for a new field house.

The current fad at Georgia Southern is to criticize the administration on every policy it makes. It doesn't end there, however, as the students openly defy the authority of the administration. Sound vaguely familiar?

Meanwhile, Hiram seems to be living in a state of chaos. Letters addressed to male students were distributed in the women's dorms. To top this, the restrooms in the library are not labeled.

A Timely Pause

QUIET

When tests are taken
And quiet surrounds,
One can be shaken
By numerous sounds.

Nerves teeteringly poised—
Concentration needed—
The least little noise—
Thought lines impeded.

So, the word is "mum"
For every test time—
Please chew that gum
In Pantomime! !
