

ROCK 'IM Matmen impressive in PC

Men's and Women's Intramural Basketball tipped off Tuesday night. A record number of total participants are taking part in the '85 IM Basketball season. Top-ranked teams in the women's division are The Slammers, floaters and Hoppsters, with strong competition expected from The Omegas, Super Troupers and Angels. The IM office would like to wish all teams luck on The Road to Morrow.

The IM office is accepting entry forms for intramural wrestling until Feb. 7, with the first organizational meeting being held Feb. 11. Coach DeGraaf of the SRU Wrestling Team will be in charge of the required practices and the tournament.

The Intramural Department will hold it's annual Valentine's Day Run-4-Fun on Feb. 14 at 4 p.m. Anyone interested in participating, please sign up in the IM office. Sign ups for Co-ed raquetball are also being accepted until Feb. 7. Anyone interested in picking up a few extra dollars by officiating games please stop by the IM office.

The Slippery Rock Wrestling team put on a strong performance in the Pennsylvania Conference Tournament at Bloomsburg this past weekend.

The Rock had nine out of ten wrestlers place which led them to a very fine fourth place team score in the tournament.

Head coach Fred Powell singled out Gary McHugh and freshman Marc Bartolomucci and Ed Burkhart. Powell stated that "these three finished higher than anyone expected them to."

Coach Powell added that the "team should be commended for a good job," and that he fourth place finish was an improvement over last year. He also stated many of the
