

SRU calendar benefits greek system

Not very often does a person detect a good workmanship between the different fraternities on college campuses and not very often can a university calendar be found, picturing young ladies in their home university on its covers.

Well, believe it or not, Slippery Rock University contains both of the above mentioned on its campus.

Kappa Delta Rho, a social fraternity, proclaims itself as the mastermind behind this calendar invention at SRU.

The idea was brought to SRU by Kappa Delta Rho's fraternity brother Nick Moore. Moore said that a fraternity from Indiana University of Pennsylvania gave him this idea while he was working part-time there during the summer of 1986.

Thrilled with this idea, Moore quickly drew up plans to establish this calendar with the rest of his fraternity that supported and welcomed his plan. His main purposes for this project was to both gain recognition for the greeks and to use this calendar as a fundraiser for Kappa Delta Rho.

Kappa Delta Rho was not the only fraternity that was involved in this project. It has the cooperation of the other SRU fraternities including Theta Chi, Phi Sigma Kappa, Delta Sigma Phi, Tekes, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Sigma Sigma, and the Rugby Club.

Moore said, "The cooperation between the different fraternities was great. Our main goal was to benefit the whole greek system, because some people have negative attitudes towards the greek system and only pick out the negative aspects."

With this project, he said he hopes they have erased most of these negative aspects.
