though we lost, to regaining respectability." Ashland struck again in the second quarter with a five yard rush into the end zone by George and Sophomore Chris Brake struck from the field, splitting the uprights with a 31-yard field goal.

Both teams were held scoreless in a defensive battle throughout the second half. The Rocket defensive unit did not allow Ashland inside the SRU 37-yard line in the last quarter of play. The Rock offense, however, only touched Ashland turf once-- after Oliver Gauthier returned a punt 12 yards to the Ashland 47-yard line.

"Going into the season, most people didn't think we'd have a team to compete," said Mihalik. "I'd like to be 2-0, but I'll take 1-1."

Sidelines:

No Rocket reached double figures in rushing except for Greg Paterra with 124.....Defense was led by Rich Moskal and Leo Coyne each with seven unassisted stops, while Mike Campbell was in on 18 tackles.

ROCK IM

The first week of the 1988 IM flag football season proved to be extremely competitive. A variety of new teams, old teams, experienced and young teams make up this year's rosters. The play is action-packed and intense to watch. It is early in the season, but our specialists have accumulated a top ten list.

The IM soccer season is in mid-season with the Cosmos kicking the top spot. Playoffs begin next week.

IM officials are still needed. Anyone that is interested please get in touch with the IM office.

Watch for upcoming events. Co-ed ultimate frisbee and volleyball (men's and women's) are just around the corner.
