Slippery Rock University SCHOLARSHIP REPORT July 1, 2021 - June 30, 2022

Dear Mr. Krepinevich:

THANK YOU. Each and every day, the generosity demonstrated by the alumni, friends and family of Slippery Rock University is impressive to behold and powerful to our students. We know that we can fulfill our promise of a "Rock Solid" education because of your help.

The impact that you make each year for the students of Slippery Rock University is important in so many ways. Through your financial support and attention to scholarship, our students are empowered to pursue the Slippery Rock University educational experience while also limiting the amount of student debt that they may otherwise have to repay. You make a difference for them through the Theta Chi Helping Hand Fund and we are grateful for the effect that you have on their lives, and on that of the entire Slippery Rock University community.

Below you will find your scholarship's financial information as well as your scholarship recipient's general information. Thank you for helping create an environment at SRU where students learn and grow and thrive as they prepare themselves for a life and career of meaning and purpose.

Financial Information – as of June 30, 2022

Principal Balance: $25,000.00

Interest Balance: $3,821.34

Total Scholarship Value: $28,821.34

2022-2023 Scholarship Recipient:

James Brokaw-Stealey from Williamsport majoring in Marketing

Your generous support truly matters. You help our students afford their education in this special place and you enhance their experience at The Rock! We ask for your ongoing support to continue and increase the vital impact that you have. Please contact me at dhollenbaugh@srufoundation.org or 724-738-2183 at any time if you have questions or want more information about how your gifts empower our students.

All the Best,

David M. Hollenbaugh
